FOUR GENERATIONS

AT DINNER PARTY GIVEN SUNDAY AT HOME OF T. J. FAMBROUGH

There was a very enjoyable gathering of relatives at the home of T. J. Fambrough, 231 West Elk avenue, Sunday, and four generations were represented—Mrs. S. J. Fambrough, her son, T. J. Fambrough, her grand-daughter, Mrs. Aileen Baker, her great-grand-daughters, Helen and Frances Baker. A bountiful dinner had been prepared and all partook of it most heartily, then the afternoon was spent in conversation, most of it reminiscent of early days in old Georgia, and music. T. J. Fambrough was born in that state but after he grew to manhood moved to East Orange, N. J., though his business interests were in New York City. He and his family came to Glendale about 10 years ago and have lived here ever since. He has done considerable building in Glendale and expects to do still more in the future.

Those present at the Fambrough home on Sunday besides him, his wife and three children were Mrs. S. J. Fambrough of Rockmart, Ga., who has been visiting in Glendale since last February; Mr. and Mrs. E. Rumble, who moved here from Georgia a few months ago and recently bought the C. J. Letts property at 111 N. Central avenue, which they will occupy in a few days; Mrs. Aileen Baker and two daughters of Dallas, Texas; N. W. McBryde and wife of Glendale.

LEE KASTER HEARS FROM HIS FORMER OFFICER

Lee Kaster of 204 East Acacia had one of the pleasantest surprises of his life yesterday when he received a letter from the former First Lieutenant of his company in the Spanish-American War. His command saw service in Porto Rico and was mustered out in March, 1899, after landing at Newport News. Mr. Kaster had not heard since from his Lieutenant, whom he always held in high esteem. He has just located in Pasadena, he wrote Mr. Kaster, and was very anxious to see him again. if only to shake him by the hand.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF EDWIN VIRDEN

Brief funeral services will be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon at 131 West Eulalia street, the residence of the late Edwin Virden, who departed this life early Wednesday morning at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles. Following the short service at the home there will be a service in charge of Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., at Forest Lawn Cemetery, in the Little Church of the Flowers at 3 o'clock. The L. G. Scovern Company have charge. The beloved husband and father leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Florence Moore Virden, and three daughters, Miss Irene Virden of 131 West Eulalia street, Glendale; Mrs. Millicent Virden Jackson of Santa Monica, and Mrs. Rose Virden Forster of Burbank.

Mr. Virden had conducted the drug store at the corner of San Fernando and Los Feliz Roads for seven or eight years. He came there from Burbank after selling a similar business in that city. He was 59 years old.

FIANCEE SHOWERED

MISS PAULINE HAMILTON, BRIDE-TO-BE OF JOHN BROWN, THUS HONORED

In honor of Miss Pauline Hamilton of Garfield avenue, who is soon to become a bride, a miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. W. R. Smith, 519 North Maryland avenue, Tuesday night. A small group of Miss Hamilton's most intimate friends made up the number who showered her with many pretty and useful gifts. The time was pleasantly passed in sewing, and social chit chat, interspersed with music.

Miss Hamilton, since her graduation from Glendale High, has spent most of her time in Cedar Falls, Ia., where she has been engaged in teaching. During vacations she has been home with her parents in Glendale.

Her fiance, John Brown, is a business man of Cedar Falls, Iowa, and the growth of the little romance has extended over several years and it will reach a happy culmination at the ringing of the wedding bells the first of August.

BACK TO CHINA

MISS BEULAH BASSETT PREPARING TO RETURN TO CHOSEN MISSION FIELD

"Once a missionary, always a missionary" is a saying exemplified in the life of one of Glendale's temporary residents—Miss Beulah Bassett of 325 Myrtle street, who after thirteen years of service is eager to again set foot on her chosen territory —China. During the course of an interview kindly granted an Evening News reporter, Miss Bassett stated that August 15th she planned to visit Ukiah, also San Francisco and vicinity before sailing from the latter port on August 21st. She will not go alone for there will be a party of fifteen or more from the Baptist Mission Board and a number from the Methodist and Presbyterian Boards.

By September 12th, Shanghai will be reached, but it will be months longer before Chentu is in sight. From Shanghai on the missionaries will be in constant peril from bandits or robbers and owing to the unsettled, unstable condition of the government in Peking, no protection is guaranteed. The regular army consists of paid soldiers who may change from protectors to bandits at any moment. So that while a boat may start out fully equipped with soldiers, no one knows just what the finale will be.

Steamboats for the first thousand miles are tolerably comfortable, but during the next thousand miles the passengers are crowded into smaller boats with practically no conveniences. Yet, notwithstanding all difficulties, Miss Bassett says she chooses to labor in China in preference to a more civilized land, because there is a larger field of opportunity, there is no crowding of workers, and the Chinese are eager to learn. Of late the Chinese are realizing the real decline of their own country and are anxious to learn

OLD-TIME FRIENDS ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Ida M. Ferry of 631 North Central avenue entertained at luncheon Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. George Felner, of Litchfield, Ill., who are old-time friends, she having known them nearly thirty-five years ago when her home was in Litchfield. Mrs. M. E. Whitaker and daughter, Mrs. L. W. Skelton, of 48th and Normandie, Los Angeles, who are relatives of Mrs. Ferry and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Felner, were also guests at the luncheon.

PROVIDING HOMES

J. A. TROTTER TO BUILD DOUBLE HOUSE ON MYRTLE STREET

J. A. Trotter of 340 Myrtle St. is planning to do his bit in the way of providing housing facilities for the many demands made upon Glendale. He has just purchased a lot at 338 Myrtle street which adjoins his home on the east and is now clearing the ground and pegging off the outlines of a double garage. A duplex house will occupy the front of the lot, the dimensions of which will probably be 30 by 40 feet. It will be modern in every detail and all that could be desired. The plans are not yet completed, but are in the hands of an architect. A feature that will appeal to the housewife is that of a separate cellar for each division of the house, which means a place on the shelf for each precious jar of fruit and also the jelly, if such there be.

Mr. Trotter designs that this venture shall constitute an income property and he will be his own contractor and builder. Mr. Trotter is one of those citizens who believes it is better to be busy than otherwise.

The Evening News reporter was privileged to examine several pieces of furniture that Mr. Trotter had made during spare moments out of materials he had on hand. There were two bureaus, a large chiffonier, a substantial typewriter desk with drawers, two containers for hanging clothing, and a nice "sittable" shoe box with two drawers. Mr. Trotter modestly disclaimed any desire to exhibit his very practical method of avoiding the H. C. L. as to furniture, but the fact remains that it works nevertheless.

Out in the yard under a wonderfully cool arbor of vines were some more practical ideas in the shape of settees and table which said as plainly as could be, "Come, rest and read, talk or tat."

MAY RAISE POSTAL RATES

RAILWAY EXECUTIVES MAY ASK FOR POSTAL TRANSPORTATION INCREASE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Railway executives announced today that they may ask the government for higher rates for postal transportation to meet the wage increase granted railway employes by the Railway Labor Board. Postal authorities said this would mean higher postal rates.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Seven railway unions have accepted the wage increase award it was indicated today. Others including telegraphers and conductors are reported to have issued strike orders, failing to accept the award. Trainmen, engineers, switchmen, shopmen, firemen, mates and pilots are said to have accepted the increase.

NOTIFICATION CEREMONIES

THOUSANDS GREET HARDING AT MARION, OHIO, TODAY; DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS IN AUGUST

MARION, Ohio, July 22.—Notification ceremonies including the speech of acceptance by Senator Warren G. Harding, attracted 500,000 people to Garfield Park here today. Over thirty special trains arrived bringing people from all parts of Ohio and the middle west.

The ceremonies were officially begun at 2 p. m. although the entire day was occupied with various meetings including a luncheon given to members of the National committee, the Notification committee and political leaders.

COLUMBUS, O., July 22.—A formal notification meeting for Governor Cox will be held August 7 at Dayton and for Franklin D. Roosevelt, August 9 at Hyde Park, New York, it was announced today by George White, National committee manager.

AWAIT WORD FROM BRYAN

DEMOCRATS AND PROHIBITIONISTS ANXIOUS FOR HIS DECISION REGARDING ACTION OF CONVENTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LINCOLN, Neb., July 22.—The Prohibition National convention is today awaiting word from William Jennings Bryan regarding his acceptance or declination of presidential nomination by the Prohibition party. His friends here declare he will not accept.

The principal fight in the Prohibition convention centered on the League of Nations plank in the platform which declared for "ratification of the peace treaty with some reservations."

COLUMBUS, O., July 22.—Leaders in the Cox campaign are at work today to secure a statement from Bryan declining the Prohibition nomination for president. It is admitted that Bryan's acceptance will be a blow to Democratic chances.

PHELAN AND KAWAKAMI IN DEBATE

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE WILL LEAVE TO CONTINUE HEARINGS IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—The Congressional hearing on Japanese colonization was continued today and consisted of a debate between Senator James D. Phelan and K. K. Kawakami, reported personal representative of the Mikado in America. The Congressional committee was scheduled to leave for Oregon and Washington this afternoon.

Further investigations will be made following the election this fall.

THREE KILLED IN RIOT

SIR HAMAR GREENWOOD GIVES REPORT TO COMMONS OF IRISH PROPERTY DAMAGE

BELFAST, Ireland, July 22.—Rioting between the Unionists and Sinn Feiners was continued today. The police record showed three killed and more than fifty wounded as a result of the riots.

LONDON, July 22.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, Secretary of State for Ireland, announced in the House of Commons today that property damage in Ireland through the Sinn Fein uprising amounted to more than $10,000. These figures are based on official reports he said.

LA FOLLETTE DENOUNCES OLD PARTIES

MADISON, Wis., July 22.—Senator La Follette bitterly denounced the Republican party in a signed editorial that appeared in La Follette's magazine today. He declared, "The old parties have failed. Representative government cannot long endure without an aggressively progressive party."

SEWERAGE QUESTION

EVERYBODY INVITED TO ATTEND TRUSTEES' MEETING TONIGHT, LEARN OF IT

A very important matter is to come up before the City Trustees at tonight's meeting and every interested citizen should be present to watch the proceedings and take part therein if he deems it necessary. This matter is the proposed establishment of a sewerage system for the business district of Glendale, which will be the nucleus of a city-wide system, to do away with the cumbersome cess pool plan now in general use. Many business men have been urging such a system, to be commenced in the business district and then gradually extended. All these, and any others interested, should avail themselves of this opportunity of hearing the matter presented in all its phases. Mr. Olmstead will be present to answer any questions that may be put to him.

About the only drawback Glendale has as an up-to-date city of homes is the lack of a sewerage system and it is hoped to remedy this condition at a very early date. The meeting tonight is a step in that direction.

A NEAR HOLDUP

C. L. Cyphers and party had a fortunate escape from what looked like an attempted hold-up, last night. It occurred on Verdugo Road, near Colorado. It was about one o'clock this morning, when Mr. Cyphers and wife, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Dart, were returning from Long Beach, having been delayed by business, and at that hour they had no desire for any further trouble. As they approached the spot mentioned, Mr. Dart noticed two automobiles standing in the road motionless and blocking the way. A man stood on the running board of one machine and as Mr. Cyphers came up the driver of the second machine began slowly moving his machine crosswise of the road. Mr. Cyphers was convinced that it meant a hold-up and at considerable risk speeded up his car and shot past the two cars, the driver of the cross-wise machine drawing back a little to avoid a collision as he saw Mr. Cyphers was determined to pass. The Cyphers and Darts were very glad of their escape from the would-be robbers, and thankful that the traffic policeman was not on hand to criticize their 45 per.

RESUMES CIVIL SERVICE WORK

Miss Mary Johnston of Eagle Rock leaves next Monday night for Arizona where she will resume the civil service work in the post-office of Flagstaff after a leave of absence of several weeks. Miss Johnston has many friends in Glendale as she attended Glendale High.

OUR COUNTRY

HOW IT FIGURES IN PROPHECY, EVANGELIST'S THEME

"The United States in Prophecy" was the subject of the discourse last evening at the Gospel Tent. Evangelist C. S. Prout stated that it was most reasonable to suppose that the rapid growth and development of such a mighty nation as the United States of America should come under the eye of the prophet of God whose vision covered the rise and fall of empires on through the centuries until the setting up of Christ's everlasting kingdom. The rise of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome as world empires were symbolized respectively by the lion, the bear, the leopard and nondescript beast of Daniel, chapter VII. The symbol which set forth the rise and future of the United States was that described in Rev. 13:11: "I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." The Roman empire in prophecy was represented by two symbols in the book of Revelation — the great red dragon. Rev. 12:3, and also the leopard beast with seven heads and ten horns with ten crowns upon his horns, Rev. 13:1. This evidently portrayed the empire in its pagan aspect until the 5th century A. D. when it became Christian and was divided up into the ten kingdoms. Ecclesiasticism then held sway under this later aspect until near the close of the eighteenth century. Then was seen this new power "coming up," not from among the nations as represented by the sea, Rev. 17:15, but "out of the earth" where there were no nations and no conflict involved. In a quiet, peaceable manner this na-

EASTERN GUESTS

MRS. R. W. MOTTERN ENTERTAINS FRIENDS FROM MARYLAND

Mrs. R. W. Mottern had a delightful visit with the Misses Zouck, of Reisterstown, Md., one of the beautiful suburban towns of Baltimore, yesterday morning. This was Mrs. Mottern's home town of her school days and these two charming young ladies were the daughters of her dearest schoolmate. The Misses Zouck are touring our own beautiful country, taking in the Yellowstone Park with which place they are very much in love, and all the beauties of California and will go to Vancouver, the Great Lakes, Canada and Niagara Falls before returning home. These young ladies are teachers in the home school, the one being Vice-Principal. They are graduates of Goucher College, Baltimore and post-graduates of Columbia University.

Reisterstown High School alumni recently celebrated its hundredth anniversary and this gave Mrs. Mottern the pleasure of hearing of her many early boy and girl friends.

Miss Elizabeth Mottern entertainde them also with many opera selections and other music to their delight as they expressed themselves for while they attended Columbia University they had heard all the operas and concert singers that New York presented.

Mrs. Mottern enjoyed their visit very much, and would have had them for dinner guests, but as with all tourists their time was so short and they could not accept her hospitality, but they promised a visit by their mother and Mrs. Mottern's sister in the near future. They were guests at the Alexandria Hotel during their stay in Los Angeles.

PLAYERS' CLUB ENTERTAINED

The Players' Club of Glendale entertained most delightfully with a card party and musicale at the residence of Mrs. Pearl G. Curran, Pacific avenue and Ivy, on Wednesday evening.

Progressive Five Hundred was played till about 10:30, the guests then gathering in the studio to listen to the artistic and informal little program given by the following well-known musicians: Mabel Capell, soprano; Hazel Linkova, violin; Isabel Yates, soprano; Pearl G. Curran and Gertrude Champlain, pianistes.

Punch was served on the veranda during the evening and coffee and cake later. Mrs. Curran and her sister, Miss Linkova, were assisted in receiving by the officers of the club, and about 50 guests were present.

Prizes for the Five Hundred players were awarded as follows: First and second ladies' prizes went respectively to Mrs. Annie McIntyre and Mrs. Frank Booth; first and second gentlemen's prizes to Frank Borgman and Carl Sieber.

GAMES FOR PRIZES

TEAMS OF HORSE SHOE PITCHERS TO COMPETE IN SATURDAY GAMES

Capt. Osborne and his band of Reds are feeling quite chesty this week because of putting it over Capt. Walter Nicoles' Blues last Saturday by winning 17 games in which they made 548 points and scored 287 ringers. The Blues won only 13 games, made 466 points and scored 276 ringers. Holeman made high score of ringers in one series, 36, and Pettit high score in 2 series, 68.

Beginning the 24th three contests are to be held on successive Saturday afternoons for a prize of a pair of shoes. The pitcher making the largest number of points in the three contests gets the shoes. The competing teams will be selected by Captains Osborne and Nicoles. The line-up will be changed each day, so all the pitchers will have equal chances to win the prize.

The resident membership of the club is now 52. A recent poll taken showed that they came from the following states: Connecticut 1, Colorado 3, Indiana 3, Illinois 9, Iowa 6, Kentucky 2, Minnesota 3, Michigan 3, Oregon 1, Pennsylvania 2, Texas 1, Tennessee 1, Utah 1, Washington 2, Ohio 2, Missouri 3, New York 1, Wisconsin 2, Maine 1. Two came from Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKenzie of 1524 Lorraine street have returned from Venice where they spent two weeks. Miss Dorothy Robinson was their guest for several days.

VAN AND SCHENCK'S NEW COLUMBIA RECORD

In their latest song for Columbia Records Van and Schenck state that "All the Boys Love Mary," and go on to explain why. The reason is closely connected with Mary's daddy's well-stocked cellar. Harry Fox makes the same words mean many things in the merry refrain of "Way Down Barcelona Way," the laugh-provoking coupling to this song.

The name of the Art Hickman Orchestra's latest fox-trot played for Columbia Records is "Take It Easy," but it's not on record that anyone who has heard it has ever taken it easy until the last note was played. The same orchestra plays as the coupling the Southern one-step "Come Back to Georgia."

Prince's Orchestra plays a medley waltz for Columbia Records this month, "Lassie," introducing "Echo" from the play "Lassie." This is coupled with another medley waltz, "Alabama Moon," introducing "My Paradise" played by the same orchestra.

S. W. Fenton, having purchased the Fullerton grocery stock, store building and residence at 712 and 714 South Brand boulevard, will move his new grocery stock from 501 Vine street and combine the two stores.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dubel and family of 415 West Colorado street returned Saturday from Carter's Camp where they spent a delightful week. They immediately left for Long Beach where they stayed for several days, returning this week.

E. White of Kansas City, Mo., Mr. Hagey of Birmingham, Alabama, and Mr. Bush of Kansas City, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnston of 111 North Everett street for several days, left last night for their homes in the east. The young men came west to attend the Shriners' Convention in Portland.

John M. Ray, who left two weeks ago for a trip to Memphis, Tenn., and Milwaukee, Wis., is now in the former city, his old home, and writes to his family here that he is having a great time among old friends in that region. He is to be in Milwaukee by the 26th to attend a meeting of insurance agents, which is the real objective of the trip.

Dr. J. K. Gilkerson and the Messrs. J. R. Baker, W. G. Boyd and H. L. Finlay left this morning at five o'clock by auto for Santa Barbara, where they will attend the California Presbyterian Synod meeting being held in that city. The party will return to Glendale on Saturday and are looking forward to a profitable and pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Reed and daughter of 331 Myrtle recently moved to this location from 300 W. Eulalia street. The home on Eulalia has been sold and the white cement house on Myrtle now shelters its new owners. The Reeds are Iowans, but came here from Riverside last December, and like Glendale with its picturesque scenery and quiet streets.

Miss Mary St. Clair of 1250 South Maryland writes from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where she is spending some time with old friends, that she is having "the time of her life." Some of the members of the 1909 graduating class of which she was a member are planning a reception in her honor, which is only one of the many good times she is enjoying. Miss St. Clair is greatly missed by her Glendale and Los Angeles friends who are truly happy that she is regaining her health and having a good time.

Mr. Halstead from Norfolk, Virginia, who is visiting relatives in Los Angeles, called at the Los Angeles Basket Factory in South Glendale in company with Charles Burnham, yesterday. Mr. Halstead was much interested in the quart basket machinery belonging to the Burnham Basket Company, which machinery was built for the East. Mr. Halstead was favorably impressed with the plant, especially with the quart basket machinery which is of vital interest to him. Mr. Halstead owns fifteen basket plants in the Atlantic States, under the name of the Farmers' Manufacturing Company, with an output of 150,000,000 baskets a year, and requiring an investment of over a million dollars.

western ways, and they are making great strides without a doubt.

The Chinese there, as here, are good students applying themselves to their work with a vim. The word shirk is an unknown quantity with those people. Miss Bassett has taught in a graded school for young married women in Suifu.

A great improvement has been made in the educational system by the introduction of the phonetic alphabet which a native can master in five weeks. It requires a longer time for a foreigner, as the Chinese already speak the language and simply have to master the written language. The symbols resemble shorthand and were originated by a group of Chinese students in Peking. The new method uses the Mandarin language only, so that eventually the dialects will have to disappear. All printing is done in Mandarin.

The Chinese idea of art is based upon their religious thought and represents stories and allegories rather than real scenes. The dragon figures conspicuously in their paintings.

Real beauty and grandeur are seen in the actual scenery however, there being nothing to compare with it, Miss Bassett affirms. The Yangste river or "son of the ocean" as it really means, is an example of magnitude. This river rises in the mountains of Tibet and empties into the ocean cutting across five ranges of mountains. At one point in the mountains the river is seventy feet deep and the current runs with great force. At Nanking the "son of the ocean" flattens out to a shallow stream, but makes up for depth by its width of ten miles.

Speaking of the methods or avenues by which the Baptist Mission reaches the natives, Miss Bassett stated that there were three divisions to the work—the educational, evangelical and medical. She will hold a new position on return, that of educational union secretary. There are several Chinese secretaries besides the two foreign secretaries.

Regarding the medical phase, wherever workers are stationed a doctor is sent; there are doctors stationed in four cities of the Western part of China, which is called Szechuan. This is a very populous region and also wealthy. The population equals that of the United States.

Miss Bassett has an aunt, Mrs. E. I. Upcraft, who has been a missionary for forty years.

CHURCH NIGHT AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN

Nearly 70 people gathered in the Christian Church bungalow last evening to "get their feet under the same table" in social fellowship and partake of the very appetizing supper prepared by the "church night" committee. After the supper, which began at 6:20, the Bible study, on the three last books of the old testament, Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi, was conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Cole, who announced at the close that the study of Job next Wednesday night and of Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and Songs of Solomon the following week will close the study of the old testament. The weekly prayer meeting, which followed the Bible study, was led by Lee Kaster, the subject being: "Individual Use of Our Talents." This topic was very strongly presented by the leader and many important truths were brought out.

REALTY BOARD

ORGANIZATION FORMED LAST NIGHT BY LEADING GLENDALE DEALERS

After enjoying the feast and imbibing the spirit of co-operation of the Insurance Men's Club banquet at La Ramada last evening, members of a few of the leading realty firms of Glendale who were present called an after meeting and formed a realty board. Mr. King called the meeting to order and temporary officers were elected, Chas. B. Guthrie, president, and B. F. Bourne, secretary. President Guthrie then appointed a committee to plan for a permanent organization and to call a meeting for that purpose in the near future. This organization has been much desired, as nearly all cities of the size of Glendale and many smaller ones have such a board. Many of those present last night spoke with enthusiasm of the future of Glendale and the mutual assistance which would result from such an organization. No man lives to himself alone and today no business can prosper that keeps selfishly aloof from others.

Secretary Bourne would like every realtor operating in Glendale to send in his name and address so he will not have to use the telephone for this purpose.

The Glendale Realty Board is modeled on the same lines as those of Los Angeles, Long Beach and other cities.

When flowers do not express the sentiment, bricks are usually resorted to.

tion grew. It was in 1789 that the United States adopted its national constitution, just a few years previous to the French Revolution which broke the power of ecclesiastical rule in Europe. It was to escape religious intolerance and royal oppression that led millions from Europe to seek these shores, and they determined to establish a government upon the broad foundation of civil and religious liberty. The two horns without crowns upon this beast appropriately represent the youthful nation, the first to be founded on such a basis. These principles are the secret of our power and prosperity as a nation. "But the stern tracings of the prophetic pencil reveal a change in this peaceful scene," says a prominent writer. The prophet declares that "he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, saying that they should make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword and did live." Rev. 13:12-14. If this application of the symbol to the United States be correct we may look for a movement here in the direction of a union of church and state after the example of Europe in past years. Already, declared the evangelist, we see developing in this fair land of liberty a movement which has for its aim the avowed intention "to secure an amendment to the constitution of the United States which shall indicate that this is a Christian nation, and place all the Christian laws, institutions and usages of the government on an undeniable legal basis in the fundamental law of the land." This is religion by law and under penalty—and will most certainly result in persecution as in the past. The intention of such a movement may be for the general good, but how have such movements in the past ended? Almost every century furnishes examples of what bigotry and malice can do under a plea of serving God by protecting the rights of the church and state. What guarantee of religious liberty shall minorities have when religion becomes thus established? Civil governments rule by majorities, and the religion that is in the majority must certainly hold sway, and enforce its wishes upon the minority. Keep religion and the state forever separate and the mistakes of the past cannot be repeated. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Sunday laws may seem innocent and for the public welfare, but they were the very means by which the church gained control of the state and by which church and state were united in the fourth and fifth centuries of the Christian era, and they constitute a powerful weapon in the hands of over-zealous citizens to persecute and oppress those who may differ from them in religious opinions. We do well to resist all such endeavors. He only is free who seeks not his own liberty, but the liberty of his fellows.

Mr. Prout announced that he would have more to say upon this subject on Friday evening. Tonight a demonstration will be given by nurses from the Sanitarium of simple, rational methods for the treatment of disease, and the care of the sick. This should be of especial interest in view of recent epidemics, and calls for a large audience.
